 - if parent's passport was issued before March 1, 2010, child can travel without his/her passport *.
 - if foreign biometric passport of the parent was issued on March 1, 2010 and after, child cannot travel without his/her passport.

 The passport of the parent MUST contain affixed photograph of the child, regardless of age, which shall bear the stamp of the passport and visa service. The absence of photographs or seal can be a ground for refusing a child to cross the border.*

- 13.1.3 To the states - participants of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS), with which the Russian Federation has an intergovernmental agreement on mutual trips of citizens (Belarus, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Moldova, Armenia), children up to 14 years, traveling with at least one parent may leave with birth certificate with confirmation of Russian citizenship (supplement or the appropriate stamp on the birth certificate). Otherwise, it can be prohibited to cross at the border of Russia and entry into the country of temporary residence of the child.
- 13.1.4 If the minor Russian citizen crossing the state border of the Russian Federation together with one of the parents there is no necessity to bring the written consent of the other parent if he/her didn't send statement of dissent to the border authorities for the child to leave the Russian Federation.
- 13.1.5 If a minor child and leaving together with him parent have different surnames, or if the child is under the age of 14 years cross the border on a separate passport it is recommended to take a certified copy of a birth certificate - to confirm the relationship. In practice, the absence of such evidence can be the basis for denying a child to cross the border.

13.2 Departure of unaccompanied child

13.2.1 Minor Russian citizen traveling from the Russian Federation unaccompanied by parents, should have in addition to foreign passport notarized parental consent to his departure abroad, with the term of departure and the State (s) that is (that) he is going to visit. It is sufficient to have a consent of one parent if the other if he/her didn't send statement of dissent to the border authorities for the to leave the Russian Federation.

However, it is necessary be aware that in the case of a visa for a child traveling without their parents the foreign embassies may require notarized consent from both parents. For example, such a practice is common to all countries of the Schengen Agreement, as well as England, USA, Canada. Originals of the agreement remain at the embassy. Therefore, it is recommended to immediately execute parental consent to his departure in several copies when registering a minor child departure abroad without parents (depending on the number of received visas and necessity to present the original consent to the passport control).

13.3 Additional tips

13.3.1 In order to avoid unpleasant surprises at the border in case of traveling abroad of a minor child, the parents should be aware that the rules of boarder crossing of states temporary stay may significantly differ from the Russian, therefor it is necessary to follow the following recommendations:

- to issue the consent from both parents (if the child travels without them) or from the second parent (if the child is traveling with only one parent); prepare a notarized translation of these documents into the language of the country of temporary residence with the apostille (translation is required in the Netherlands, Germany, Ireland, France).
- translate the death certificate of the parent (if the other parent is dead) into the language of the country where a child travels.

13.3.2 Regulatory acts that should be known

- Departure of minor Russian citizens abroad and document execution for them govern: - Federal Law dated August 15, 1996 № 114-ФЗ "On the order of entry into the Russian Federation and exit from the Russian Federation";
- Russian Federation Government Resolution dated May 12, 2003 № 273 "On approval of the rules of application for dissent to leave the Russian Federation of a minor citizen of the Russian Federation";
- Presidential Decree dated November 3, 2006 № 1226 "On Amendments to the Regulations on the order of consideration of issues of citizenship of the Russian Federation, approved by presidential decree dated November 14, 2002 №1325».
- Order of the Federal Migration Service of the Russian Federation dated 03.02.2010 N 26 "On approval of the Administrative Regulation of the Federal Migration Service for the provision of public services on registration and issuance of passports of the Russian Federation, the identity of a citizen of the Russian Federation outside the territory of the Russian Federation, and the execution of the state function on their account ".
